The Private Dining Rooms at Rules, Covent Garden

The Private Dining Rooms at Rules are in some ways the hidden gem of our renowned restaurant. Situated on the 2nd floor and blessed with natural daylight, both rooms offer the perfect setting for meeting and entertaining.

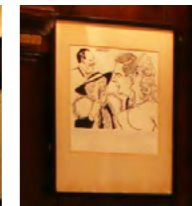

Both rooms have beautiful wood-panelling, original leaded windows and are decorated with historic mementos and references to their famous namesakes.

With his impeccable flair, our head chef David Stafford has created seasonal menus which reflect Rules legacy of the finest British cooking; menus can of course be tailored to clients' individual preferences and dietary requirements.

Our much lauded head bartender Chris Lacey can devise special cocktails to accompany your booking and our bespoke wine-tasting sessions are a popular way to break the ice at any event!

Fresh flowers, menus and place cards are included in the private dining rooms and for business lunches and meetings we also provide a 42 inch television screen, laptop and Wi-Fi.

Our dedicated Private Dining Team will do all they can to make your event, whether it is a product launch, corporate dinner or family celebration, memorable and rewarding.
